The undersigned Applicant hereby applies for membership with Energy Insurance Mutual Limited (the "Company"). The Applicant agrees that if accepted for membership, it will:

1. execute and be bound by the terms of the Company's excess liability insuring agreement(s);
2. pay to the Company under the terms and conditions set forth in the insuring agreement all premiums commensurate with the insurance coverage afforded thereunder, it being understood that the liability of the Applicant shall be limited to the premium due to the Company under the terms of the insuring agreement;
3. agree to be bound in all respects by the Articles of Incorporation and By-laws; and

4. complete and submit a renewal insurance application prior to the issuance of any insurance agreement by the Company subsequent to the Applicant's initial insurance agreement with the Company. The Applicant understands that its membership in the Company requires that it purchase insurance from the Company for a minimum of two (2) years, except as otherwise provided by the terms of the insuring agreement.

The Applicant acknowledges receipt of the Company's insuring agreement(s), Articles of Incorporation, By-laws, and a Power of Attorney. The Applicant understands and agrees that this application and acceptance of same by the Company is contingent upon: (i) the applicant receiving all regulatory approvals, if any, needed to become a member of the Company; (ii) the Applicant being found acceptable for insurance by the Company; (iii) the Company's quotation of an insurance premium and offering of insuring terms to the Applicant and the Applicant's acceptance thereof; and (iv) the payment by the Applicant of all requisite premiums to the Company.

The Applicant further agrees that if its Application for Membership is approved and accepted by the Board of Directors of the Company, on terms acceptable to the Applicant, it will undertake to become a Member, accepting all the obligations and duties of Membership.
